The Quack- Indy Beau Down

Beau 2013 by Noah Glazier and Julia Rubenstein

Hello fellow cowboys and cowchicks. Welcome to the Indy Beau Down! Tonight we are going to go so crazy you are going to feel like you are on an episode of Buckwild! We were twerking it up and throwin' it down, 'cause it's a Ho Down! Our amazing coordinators for this event (Noah Glazier and Julia Rubenstein) have worked super hard on this night for you all! So with that, we hope you had an incredible night at Indiana's Beau down. YEEHAAW!

Quack Poetry

Quack, quack, quack.
Look who's back.

Sarah and Zoe are ready to attack.
Sam and Kelsey got our back!
Kelsey might be tiny,
but her heart is as big as Kim K's heiny.

Sam's kinda cool I guess.
But he doesn't deserve a rhyme.

Y'all needa read this ASAP,
even though this is cheesy.

Hope ya'll had a good night,
Julia and Noah made this dance tight!

AIT/MIT 2013

On April 19th, AITs and MITs from all over KIO gathered at Camp Campbell Gard for the convention of a life time. The convention coordinators were Eli Profeta (Indy) and Phoebe Rose (Dayton). Over 50 AITs and MITs were inducted into the region. There were many fun and educational programs such as "Why we joined BBYO," community service, and mock chapters.

AZA/BBG of the Month

Fish are pretty gross animals, but not Rachel BASS (haha punny). Rachel Bass has been elected spring term chapter N'siah and with her help and the board Jay Levine has grown so much over this past term--number wise and in strength. Along with the rest of the board, Rachel is a role model in her chapter and to everyone throughout the region.

Noah Glazier is the AZA of the month this time around! He has been elected as spring term Godol for his chapter, and along with his fellow board members he has planned amazing programs with very high attendance. Noah is the current AZA Program Excellence chair for the region! He is a great and outgoing guy that everyone should get to know. And don't forget, he co-planned this whole dance!
